

Writing, running and including the output of external documents from within a main $\text{\LaTeX}$ document –v. 0.44

Herbert Voß hvoss@tug.org*

July 4, 2026

Contents

1	Loading the package	3
2	Syntax	3
3	First examples	3
3.1	Without showing the code	3
3.2	Showing code and output of a Python example	4
4	Setting marker in the source	7
5	Optional arguments	8
5.1	Programs and runs	8
5.2	Grafik options	11
5.3	Listings options	11
5.4	Background color	11
5.5	Type of the source code	12
5.6	Output more than one page	12
5.7	Output as floating object with caption and label	13
5.8	Cropping the PDF	14
5.9	Code and output side by side	15
5.10	Horizontal alignment of the output	15
5.11	Inline images	16
5.12	Input text instead of an image	16
5.13	Running additional external programs	18
5.14	Using listings	19
5.15	Vertical space	21
5.16	No output	22
6	Defining new marker	22
7	Supported engines	23
7.1	METAPOST example	23
7.2	plain $\text{\TeX}$ example	24
7.3	Lua $\text{\TeX}$ example	25

*Thanks to Karl Berry; Denis Bitouzé; Werner Lemberg; Rolf Niepraschk